

MARQUETTE

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the local context in which a project is implemented. This includes a thorough understanding of the community's needs, values, and beliefs. It is essential to engage with the community from the very beginning, ensuring that their voices are heard and their input is valued. This process of engagement is not a one-time event but a continuous one that evolves as the project progresses.

The second part of the paper explores the challenges that often arise in community-based projects. These challenges can range from a lack of resources to a lack of trust between the project team and the community. It is important to recognize these challenges early on and to develop strategies to address them. For example, building trust can be a slow process, but it is a necessary one. It requires transparency, honesty, and a willingness to listen to the community's concerns.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of having a clear vision and a well-defined plan. While it is important to be flexible and to adapt to changing circumstances, having a clear direction is essential for the success of a project. This vision should be shared with the community, and they should be involved in the process of developing the plan. This ensures that the project is aligned with the community's needs and goals.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong leadership team. This team should be composed of individuals who are committed to the project and who have the skills and experience to lead the community. It is important to have a mix of perspectives and backgrounds, as this can help to ensure that the project is inclusive and that it addresses the needs of all members of the community.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong communication strategy. This strategy should be designed to ensure that the community is kept informed of the project's progress and that they have the opportunity to provide feedback. This can be done through a variety of methods, including community meetings, newsletters, and social media.

The sixth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong evaluation system. This system should be designed to measure the project's impact on the community and to identify areas for improvement. It is important to involve the community in the evaluation process, as this can help to ensure that the project is meeting their needs and that they are satisfied with the results.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong sustainability plan. This plan should be designed to ensure that the project's benefits are maintained over the long term. This can be done by building the capacity of the community to manage the project themselves and by ensuring that the project is financially sustainable.

The eighth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong partnership with other organizations. This can help to ensure that the project has the resources and support it needs to be successful. It is important to choose partners who share the same vision and who are committed to the same goals.

The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong culture of innovation. This culture should be one in which new ideas are encouraged and where people are willing to take risks. This can help to ensure that the project is able to adapt to changing circumstances and that it is able to find creative solutions to the challenges it faces.

The tenth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong sense of community. This sense of community should be one in which people feel a sense of belonging and where they are able to support each other. This can help to ensure that the project is able to sustain itself over the long term and that it is able to make a lasting impact on the community.

Once upon a time, Bishop Noll seemed so big and monstrous . . .

—Diane Irk '73

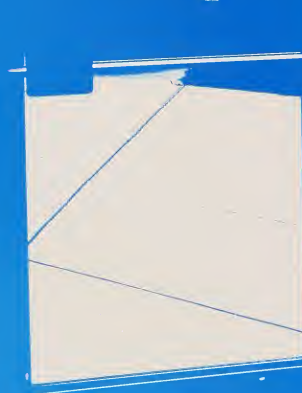

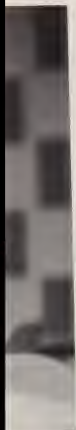

Bishop Noll is a school, and only that. It will open and close its doors the same way long after I'm gone. It's not the lockers, or the desks, or the sounds; it's the people here that I love.

—Nancy Backus '72

Meet someone halfway—the very source of communication and understanding.

—Antonio Aburto '72

Happy, involving, business balanced by smiles, laughing, walking through quiet or crowded halls—
a fun sort of place.

—Mary Frances Gilbert '73

At Noll, you can set your goals high, knowing that everyone here will help you to realize your dreams. The teachers treat you as an individual, the students treat you as a friend.

—Donna Kuric '73

Extra-curricular activities help to develop the whole person—the chance to associate with others outside the classroom complements the academic experience.

—Maureen Mulholland '73

Everything and everyone is dependent on everything and everyone else—nothing and no one stands alone or lonely.

—Jo Ellen Mistarz '73

I came here expecting it to be hard—so far I've been completely right.

—Kathy Bielak '73

Learning is a challenge far beyond that which grades can conquer.

—Nancy Grabovac '72

For seniors, it was the last time for everything. We don't realize it now, but most of us will miss Noll and the people we knew.

—Terri Szczepanski '71

EVENTS

Spring Musical

"Nothing's quite the same as the Pajama Game." Directed and produced by Charles Breckle and choreographed by Mrs. Phyllis Peyrot, the 1970 spring musical, "The Pajama Game," was an outstanding example of student co-operation as well as organization and capability of student and faculty directors.

The majority of the action takes place at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory, owned by Myron Hassler, where the employees, headed by Prez, were in the midst of organizing a strike for a "vital" seven and a half cent raise. Other scenes concerned the personal affairs of the employees: Kate Williams and Sid Sorokin, and Gladys Hodgkins and Vernon Hines. Adding humor to the story were the characters, Mabel and Mae, who delighted the audience.

The Union hall comes to life with the Sleep-Tite employees' rendition of "Steam Heat." Later Ralph Fornari accuses an innocent Nora Ginther, Margaret Lukaszewski dreams of the day when she'll never be jealous again.

Nancy Polman points out an article of importance to Terry Clifton; Ron Klaprodt tries to convince Bonnie Mysliwy that "Her is the Cutest." Sleep-Tite employees celebrate their "Once a Year Day."

Prom

The theme of the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom, "All This is But a Dream," expressed the dream-like atmosphere created on prom night. Held amidst the elegance of the Chateau Royale in Chicago, music for the evening was provided by Ronnie Rodgers and his band. A tribute to the class of 1970, presented by George Germick, and the crowning of the Prom King and Queen highlighted the memorable activities organized by Prom Chairman Debbie Moldrawski and the members of the Junior Class. As couples danced to the post-Prom music furnished by "The Enchanters," others climbed spiral staircases and enjoyed the beauty of the surroundings. As the busses began their long trip home, couples came to the reluctant realization that this dream had come to an end.

Prom King and Queen, Ben Garner and Pat Santare, reign over the activities as Annette Mysliwiec and her escort dance to the music of "The Enchanters."

Dinner was enjoyed amidst regal splendor; Mike Sember and Ande Weber enter the ballroom as other couples participate in the festivities of the evening.

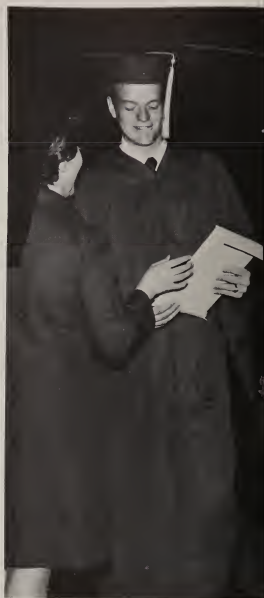

Graduation

For five hundred eighty-one students of Bishop Noll Institute a four year educational "cycle" terminated on Graduation Day 1970.

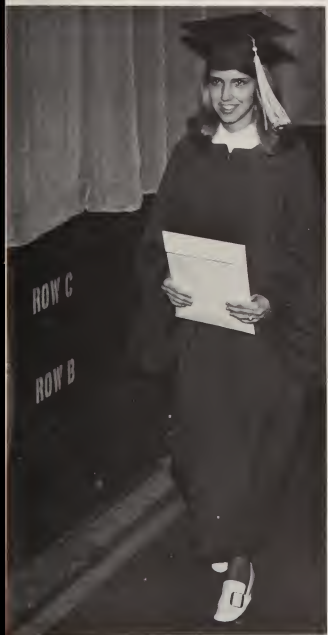

On May 28, the Baccalaureate Mass was concelebrated by Bishop Grutka and faculty priests. Afterwards, one hundred twenty-one scholarships and awards from colleges throughout the country were conferred.

On Sunday, May 31, commencement exercises were held in the fieldhouse. Prior to the distribution of diplomas by Bishop Grutka, Valedictorian Gail Schweitzer reminisced over her past four years at Noll and then remarked that there were yet "things to accomplish, doors to open."

Salutatorian James Rybarczyk said that his career at Noll was "the worst of times, the best of times" and that he and his fellow graduates will start new and different lives after graduation.

Faculty priests assist Bishop Grutka during the Offertory of the Baccalaureate Mass. Although Valedictorian Gail Schweitzer had received her award, other graduates patiently waited to receive their diplomas; Mike Calderone and Cathie Chrustowski rejoice after the ceremonies.

The Jets stand ready for action as Maria (Pam Kelly) and Tony (Jim Grasha) secretly meet. The Shark's girls: Sue McCormick, Gayle Wojciechowski, Suzanne Peyrot and Christy Thamm.

Summer Theatre

"West Side Story," a modern musical adaptation of Romeo and Juliet, was presented in Bishop Noll's fifth year of staging summer theatre. The production was completely restaged for BNI'S theatre-in-the-round. The action of the story takes place on the west side of Manhattan where the Sharks, a newly formed gang of Puerto Rican youths, are threatening the Jets, a well established American gang. Tony, a member of the Jets, falls in love with Maria, the sister of the rival gang leader, but tragedy results. The cast and band, which included adults and veteran actors, represented nine different schools and colleges. With the help of Mr. Charles Breckle, the director, Mrs. Phyllis Peyrot, the choreographer, and Mr. Roger Emig, the orchestra director, the Thespians performed to a standing-room-only audience.

Knives flash and the rumble between the Jets and Sharks becomes a tragedy. Bernardo (Ray Laska) and Anita (Christy Thamm) discuss life in America as the Sharks stay on the watch. Maria tries to comfort Tony in the final scene.

Orientation

Another year of books, tests, lectures and activities began for students on Orientation Day. After seeing a movie and hearing a welcome back speech by the new principal, Father McGrogan, students made their way from the auditorium to one of the audio-visual rooms. Here they received class schedules and then moved on to find their homerooms, where locker combinations were distributed and course fees paid. As usual, upperclassmen peddled used books to their younger colleagues. Students that did not buy used books got the chance to purchase new ones in the cafeteria bookstore.

Orientation Day to the class of '74 was the start of a new life while to the rest of the classes it was simply the start of another school year.

Freshman Kevin Arbuckle checks his booklist; new principal Father McGrogan directs freshmen; juniors Bob Wilson and Kevin McCarthy check the price of new books.

Confident seniors Noreen Rosellini and Trudy Falcone attend their last orientation; a bewildered freshman receives assistance from Mr. Mutzbauer; mathematician Dennis Gerdes sports the "new look" as he doles out book fees.

Homecoming

The 1970 Homecoming will be remembered as one of Noll's greatest due to the efforts of Chairman Luci Ardelean and the various committees. Activities commenced on Thursday, October 8, with a colorful parade through East Chicago. In keeping with the theme, "Those Were the Days," the candidates for queen rode in antique cars. Paraders carried homecoming balloons and wore booster badges to exhibit their loyalty. A pep rally and senior skit concluded Thursday night's activities. Friday was designated as dress up day, and students showed the spirit of winners. Halftime ceremonies centered on the coronation of the queen, Denise Ondrejka and a special theme program co-ordinated by the band and pom-pom girls. The next evening, couples danced to the music of "Courage" as John Clarke was crowned Mr. Touchdown.

Class unity was shown by the award winning Senior Class float. Varsity cheerleader Diane Skurka and the School Spirit cheer at the pep rally.

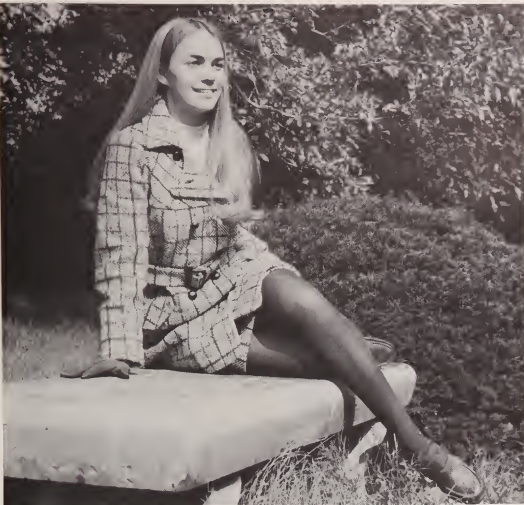

Juniors Lee Sredzinski, Nancy Backus and John Daly ready their vehicles for the parade. Homecoming queen Denise Ondrejka and Mr. Touchdown John Clarke reign over Homecoming activities, Mark Grafton and Meredith Simko enjoy the splendor of the dance. Chief Homa-Coma, Mark Wusik, sits before his teepee, awaiting a council of war.

Homecoming Court members Sharon Kish,
Queen Denise Ondrejka and Marlene Wozniak.

Homecoming Court

Homecoming Court members Alexis Menke, Lori Baran and Barb Hicks.

"You were in Brazil for two weeks and had them importing coffee," remarks Leo Ambre to his bumbling son, John Daly as Dean Niedenthal takes notes. Jesse Ramos sneaks into the embassy. Jim Thorp and Chris Shatkowski reflect on days gone by.

Fall Drama

The annual fall production this year featured not only new actors but a new director. "Don't Drink the Water," a contemporary comedy by Woody Allen, was directed by Mr. Joseph Malzak and produced by Mr. Charles Breckle. This production is noted for its variety of comic characters: a son, a Jewish caterer and his wife, a magician priest and a pompous sultan.

The play is set in the embassy of a foreign country. The peaceful serenity of the embassy is broken by the intrusion of an American touring couple (Chris Shatkowski and Jim Thorp). To find an escape for them is the main problem of Axel Magee (John Daly). Things are complicated by a suspicious enemy agent Krojack (George Germick), and the romance of Axel and Susan Hollander (Sylvia Castro).

A comforting Sylvia Castro tries to cheer up John Daly. A threatening finger issued by Jim Thorp halts the angry protests of George Germick

Winter Formal

The warm and festive atmosphere of the Christmas season prevailed throughout the BNI Ballroom at this year's Winter Formal. Under the direction of Benedict Ollo, Winter Formal General Chairman, the BNI Ballroom truly became as its theme indicated, a "Winter Wonderland." Through hard work and creativity, a simple room was transformed into a scene of wintry elegance. A snow covered pathway lined with old-fashioned street lamps found its way into the gaily decorated ballroom. In the ballroom, complete with a foot bridge and an open sleigh, couples danced around a brightly lit Christmas tree to the music of "The Oasis." The election of a Snow King and Queen became a new activity of this year's Winter Formal with the crowning of Chuck Gora and Sharon Kish.

"The Oasis" provide the beat for Nancy Backus and Bob Hanrahan as Dorothea Santare and Kevin Doolin receive their bid.

Snow King, Chuck Gora, crowns Sharon Kish as Winter Formal Queen. Timothy Dermody and Patty Nalewski discuss the events of the evening, while earlier that evening Ann Dorin and her escort cast their vote for Snow King and Queen.

Sock Hops

The band blares, people dance, sing, gossip, listen, the music circulates and another sock hop has begun. An integral part of school activities, sock hops serve as informal get togethers for all involved. Sock hops, which are club sponsored activities, bring profits and fun to such organizations as the Medical Careers Club and Hi-Y. Annually sponsored by the Human Relations Club, "La Soul Noche" provides an evening of soul music for Bishop Noll students and their friends. The Marquette Yearbook Distribution Dance, held during the summer, proved to be a happy reunion for everyone. This dance, under normal conditions, is usually held towards the end of the school year and is the time when students receive their long awaited year books. Another Marquette sponsored dance, "The Turkey Hop" was held during the Thanksgiving break.

Sophomore Maryann Kumiega relaxes while talking to a friend at a sock hop. Jan Kowal and Ruth Tokarz display their dancing abilities. Mark Wusik and Regina Grabowski enjoy a slow dance; Pattie Matusik prefers a faster beat.

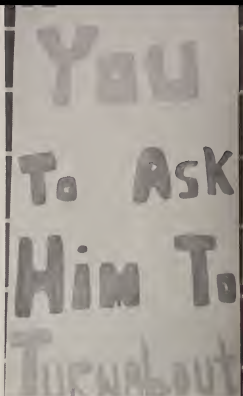

Steve Homner of "The Rainbow Tree" adjusts the microphone as students participate in a line dance. Seniors Georgiann Kish, Sam Dragovich, Bill Adamchik, Cynthia Slamka, Pattie Sabol, and Anita Purcell enjoy their last sock hop.

Turnabout

On February 20, 1971, the BNI cafeteria was transformed into a world of "Lollipops and Roses" as the annual Turnabout dance was sponsored by the Noll Service Club. This event gives all girls the chance to ask their favorite guy out for a romantic evening.

Lollipop trees, rose trellises, cupid silhouettes, a garden path lined with flowers and lollipops and colorful table decorations all carried out this year's theme. The band, "Clearlight," provided the evening's entertainment. The occasion was highlighted by the crowning of Terri Szczepanski as the 1971 "Sweetheart Queen."

The organization and planning of the dance was co-ordinated by Co-Chairmen Kathy Matonovich and Mary Cera, assisted by Service Club moderator, Mrs. Mary Michielsen.

Tony Rea and Gail Koharko arrive for Turnabout. Joseph Bac and Karen Zawada accept their bid from Mary Cera.

Maria Olenik and Duane Lula stroll down a lane of "Lollipops and Roses" on their way to the dance floor, where "Clearlight" provides the music. Service Club President Lois Butte crowns Terri Szczepanski "Sweetheart Queen" while her date Tom Gozdecki looks on. Peggy Howard's escort pins on her corsage before they enter the "BNI Ballroom."

Student Council

Bishop Noll's Student Council functions as a mediator between the school administration and the student body. Co-sponsors Father Pat Connolly and Sister Geraldine feel that if unity between students and faculty is to exist there must be an understanding between them. Various committees, including discipline, campus, and athletic affairs, were formed to help promote this unity. Assemblies allow all students to voice their opinions on school matters and activities.

In addition to sponsoring Homecoming and Winter Formal, this year the S.C. and the Mothers' Club worked together to host the first interarea high school fashion show.

This year's Council was run in a slightly different manner, with more of a feminine angle. President Kathy Sertich said, "It seems like the student's idea of who should run the student government has changed."

Among the many activities sponsored by the Student Council was a senior skit put on during Homecoming. S.C. Treasurer Peggy Janovsky and President Kathy Sertich.

Roxanne Linders checks her article in a local newspaper; Sports editor Tom Ramker and News editor Jeanne LaMere check the JourNoll files.

Terri Szczepanski goes over her copy with JourNoll editor Tim Reuth while Emil Mosora works in the darkroom; Jim Thorp does research for his news bureau article.

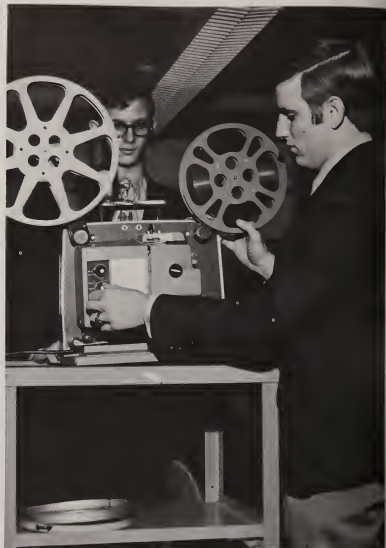

Publications

The JourNoll, attempting to include everyone's interests, presented a variety of articles and sketches. The columns contained not only the opinion of the editor and other reporters on the staff, but also the views of the student body. Sports and feature items gave students an insight into what happened in academic and social events. Faculty caricatures, photos and upcoming activity calendars made the JourNoll more appealing.

The Beginning, the annual literary magazine, allowed talented students of all grades to express themselves in poetry and artistic form. Both publications are sponsored by Mr. Jack Nelson.

The News Bureau gives outsiders an inside view of what goes on at Noll. Two senior journalists are appointed to report Noll activities to The Times and other area newspapers.

National Business Honor Society members Kathy Kovacs, Sonia Lugo and Tim Rueth practice keypunch maneuvers. National Honor Society President Dennis Pasternak and Emil Mosora run a film. N.H.S. Secretary-Treasurer Sue Mills and Vice-President Mark Simaga review a literary work.

Honor Societies

Many students receive deserving recognition with acceptance into the National Honor Society. Candidates are evaluated by their scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The organization is under the supervision of Sister Imelda and annually sponsors the Folk Festival and Variety Show.

The National Business Honor Society, a sister organization jointly headed by Sister Rosita and Mrs. Pihulic, offers membership to those juniors and seniors participating in the business program. A student must have completed at least three business courses by the end of his senior year and must maintain a B average in each subject for full membership.

As an honorary journalistic organization, Quill and Scroll recognizes students who have achieved outstanding merit in the field of journalism. Eligible for acceptance are the members of the Marquette, JourNoll, Beginning, and News Bureau. This organization serves to enhance a student's interests and abilities in journalism.

Medical Careers Club members Debbie Moldrawski and Jeanne Brock file students' medical records as President Paula Tucak and Patti Micheli discuss upcoming FSA activities; FTA members vote on a proposed field trip.

Career Clubs

Serving as teacher's aids and listening to guest speakers help members of the Future Teachers of America realize what it means to be a teacher. Mr. Robert Czarnecki, FTA sponsor, helps the students to understand the aims and advantages of the teaching profession.

The purpose of the Future Secretaries of America is to introduce students to the many facets of the business world. Sponsor Sister Rosita assists club members in inviting guest speakers who broaden the students' knowledge of the secretary's duties and importance. This city-wide association hopes to develop in each member a professional and responsible attitude.

Trying to acquaint themselves with the many branches and varieties of medical careers available is the purpose of the Medical Careers Club, moderated by Mrs. Irene Benson. Guest speakers, films, and trips to nearby clinics and hospitals help accomplish this goal.

Medical Careers Club members Mary Beth Benson and Delia O'Kelly gain experience in using medical equipment; Secretary Janice Posavec uses her typing skills to record the minutes of an FSA meeting. FTA President Ruth Meeker, Vice-President Dave Radovich, and Sargeant-at-Arms John Toth exchange ideas on their college plans.

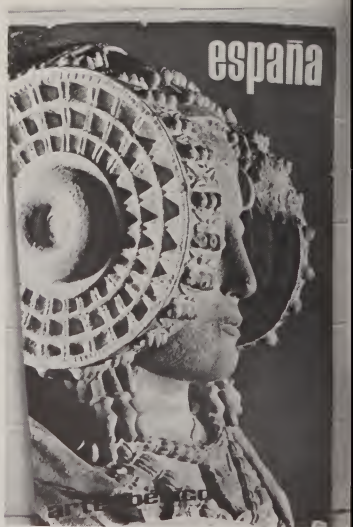

Spanish Club and Hi-Y Club

Aided by club sponsor Mr. Antonio Hernandez, the officers and members of the Spanish Club strive to increase their understanding of Spanish civilization. The annual Christmas Banquet, at a local Spanish restaurant, and Christmas caroling at the Carmelite Home for Boys, gave Christmas a Spanish accent for club members. Pen-pals from Mexico help the students learn the customs and heritage of the Spanish world. The club also co-sponsored La Soul Noche, a winter sock hop, that featured the sale of Mexican foods.

The Noll chapter of the Hi-Y Club was founded this year by senior Ricky McIntosh. It is a fraternity of the area YMCA on the high school level. The fourteen members meet once a week and have sponsored several BNI sock hops.

The Hi-Y sock hops became successful events for both the club treasury and the students who attended; at a previous Hi-Y meeting, the selling of tickets for the dance proved to be the vital issue at hand.

Spanish Club President Harolyn Coleman, Secretary-Treasurer Rebecca Cuellar, and Vice-President Margaret Papierz, check on the Spanish lab. Hi-Y Club sweethearts, Nancy Guiden and Yvonne St. James along with club officers Tom Ramker, David Bryant, John Domazet, Ricky McIntosh, and Emery Biddings. Spanish Club meetings prove to be a time to learn and socialize.

Tom Sanders, Gerri Browning, Daria Grant and Terry Jones find relaxation by listening to the juke-box. President Joy Williams tries to prove a point with fellow members of the Human Relations Club. Sorting out and packing food donations was a major project of the Mission Club.

Mission Club and Human Relations Club

As an added incentive for contributing to the missions, a weekly collection of twenty-five cents was taken and then a drawing for first, second and third place was held for the contributors. Father David Hauskins, who is moderator of the club, continued the usual tradition of homerooms collecting foods of all kinds for Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets. The annual festivities of Mardi Gras were held in March.

The Human Relations Club, directed by Father Pat Gaza, discussed the many problems existing between racial groups, especially those problems concerning students in area schools. One of the activities the club sponsored was the Student Exchange Program which allowed Noll and other high school students to share ideas by observing each other's educational programs.

Mission Club Officers Peggy Howard, Janice Bacon, President Dennis Pasternak and Debbie Imes gather information for an upcoming Mission Meeting.

Service Club Treasurer Barb Skibinski and Vice-President Kathy Matonovich help clean up after a banquet. G.A.C. members Mary Owczarzak and Traci Bostonich practice their shooting before a game.

When you're Feeling Very "Together,"
ASK Him to Turnabout - Feb. 20.

Service Club and G.A.C.

Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Michielsen, Bishop Noll's Service Club members devoted time and energy in serving at school activities during the year. The club was composed of junior and senior girls selected on the recommendation of their teachers. Its annual project is sponsoring the "Turnabout" dance, held in February, with this year's theme being "Lollipops and Roses."

The main purpose of the Girls' Athletic Club is to give girls a chance to show their athletic abilities through an organized sports program. Members enjoy participating in basketball, volleyball, softball, swimming and tumbling. Sponsor Miss Sheila Kelly believes that girls are as talented as boys in sports and should have the opportunity to participate on athletic teams.

G.A.C. President Denise Sobilo awaits a rebound: Miss Sheila Kelly, G.A.C. sponsor, explains game rules to a basketball team. Service Club Secretary Ruth Koval and President Lois Butte check the serving arrangements for an upcoming dinner.

Mr. Peter Andersen talks music with Guitar Society President Debbie Henderlong while Judy Lummio and Jim Thorp discuss some poetry readings.

Ruth Delauriea helps with the recording of the Guitar Society's Folk Festival; Joe Egnatz introduces the next act for the Folk Festival.

Guitar Society and Speech and Debate

At Noll, the purpose of the Guitar Society is to teach and encourage students to play folk music and to hold concerts that enable students to perform in public. The club's moderator is Mr. Peter Andersen. Along with the National Honor Society, the Guitar Society co-sponsors the annual Folk Festival. At weekly meetings members learn new songs. Many performances are held throughout the year, including the yearly Spring Concert.

The Speech Team develops speakers and teaches students the value of communication. Quick thinking and research abilities are the main objectives of the Debate Team. Both teams pit top speakers of area schools against each other. Mr. James Cavallo is the moderator of the Debate Team which is ranked with the best in the state this year.

Andrean's Pat O'Brien plays and sings as a guest at Noll's Folk Festival; Mr. Jim Cavallo instructs freshmen Ted Bloch, Dennis Dvorshak and Gene Kubacki in the debate team rules. Rick Kerman, Mark Cohen, and Liz Beckman prepare their research for a coming speech meet.

Math Clubs and Amateur Radio Club

A continued interest and practical application in mathematics is the prime objective of both math clubs this year. Under the direction of moderator Mr. James Welborne, the Sophomore Math Club organized the Annual Eighth-Grade Math Tournament and ordered club pins. The Junior-Senior Math Club, sponsored by Sister Imelda, acted as judges for the tournament and earned money by selling colorful folders.

This year's Amateur Radio Club brings the familiar code of the radio world to Bishop Noll. Moderated by Reverend Clare Hendricks, a major aim of the club is to make all members amateur radio operators. The club has been successful in setting up contacts with several overseas stations. One of the club's projects is its annual transmission of Christmas greetings to friends and relatives stationed in Southeast Asia.

Ed Liss, Tim Laud, Bill Santic, Jim Hohenberger and Kevin Arbuckle try to make contact with other radio stations throughout the world. Junior-Senior Math Club President Dennis Pasternak points out one use of the overhead projector to Vice-President Kathy Rabatin and Secretary Margie Rajnoch.

N.A.R.C. Treasurer Larry Sobilo, Vice-President Mike Hogan and President Bob Obremski practice sending a message in morse code.

Band

Because of its versatility, the 1971 Bishop Noll Band provided music for many of Noll's activities. The marching band performed during half time activities at football games and at various parades, among them, the Hammond Christmas Parade and a Memorial Day Parade. The band was honored by being asked to play at Purdue's Homecoming. The concert band performed a variety of music at several public concerts.

All band members devote the last hour of each school day rehearsing their music and working on musical routines. By playing at basketball games, pep rallies and other special activities, a student may accumulate a total of fourteen points and earn a band letter. The band is directed by Mr. James La Mantia and is assisted by drum majorette Yvonne Webb and the band officers.

Band majorettes Rosanne Janeczko, Sharon Kish, Georgene Cichocki, and Kathy Kuzydym run through a marching routine; a typical scene for the band room bulletin board. Dan Burosh practices on the drums.

Band President, Greg Tabaczynski takes a try at the kettledrum. Larry Leonard, John Angyus, and Kevin Tilka lead the way in the band's performance at the Hammond Christmas Parade.

Choral

Under the direction of Sister Marie Andre and Reverend John Winterlin, the Nollaires and choral clubs gave interested students the opportunity to express their feelings through song. The Nollaires are a group of girls selected by their singing ability. Along with the Nollaires, the girls' chorus, the boys' glee club, and the mixed chorus performed at three concerts held during the year. The first was a tribute entitled, "An Evening with Rodgers and Hammerstein," featuring many of their great selections. The annual Christmas concert consisted of traditional American carols and some European carols. Featured as part of the Spring Concert, this year, was a salute to the Music Man of 1970, Mr. Burt Bacharach.

Freshmen Choral, Boys Choral, Nollaires and Advanced Choral join together under the direction of Sister Marie André to present a concert. Sally Burke, Linda Hill and Karen Palla, together with Mary Beth Benson, rehearse for the Christmas concert.

Freshmen choral members use gestures to express their "Happy Talk." The boys chorus not only harmonizes with the girls' groups but is also featured at choral concerts.

Patty Nalewski, Barb Tonkovich and Mary Jo Semchuck listen to instructions before singing a song. The Nollaires discover that talent takes hard work and practice.

Mat Maids, Pom-Pon Girls and Swim Club

An organization newly formed this year, the Pom-Pon Girls, sponsored by Mrs. Gaye Andersen, strives to promote school spirit and enthusiasm. Working in close association with the band, the girls perform mainly at half-time and in parades. In their first year of operation, they purchased two sets of colorful uniforms. Numerous hours were spent perfecting drill routines for precision performances.

The BNI Mat Maids, aided by head wrestling coach, Mr. James Tobolski, assume responsibilities for individual and team scoring, history, and news clippings of team meets.

Organized by Swim Coach Herb Marquedant, Swim Guards devote their Saturday mornings to teaching area grade school students the fundamentals of swimming. The guards also assist at swim meets by serving as timers and scorekeepers.

Pom-Pon girls Mary Beth Reardon and Diane Zuffa improve their precision marching; The Noll Swim Club—Row 1: Terry Tilka, John Burczak, John Crist, Debbie Mazurkiewicz, Terri Pietrzak, Celeste Bolfik, Mary Pietrzak. Booster club practices are held for an hour each week to achieve correct letter formations. President Donna Podkul informs the Sophomore Pep Club of a future game. Senior Cynthia Slamka checks the clock during a close contest.

Booster Club and Sophomore Pep Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Marge Ripple, the Bishop Noll Booster Club, made up of junior and senior girls, is one of the prime forces behind the promotion of school spirit. Members form letters with blue and gold vests and coordinate hand motions to a variety of cheers. This year they also sold booster badges during both football and basketball seasons. Besides attending all home games, the club also participated at away games held in the vicinity.

Sponsored by Mrs. Garnette Kochler, the Sophomore Pep Club tries to increase the spirit at the Junior Varsity basketball games. This year, along with the blue and gold N's, members purchased pom-poms to add color and variety to their block formation.

President Linda Zipko shouts instructions for a new cheer to the Booster block. Vest captain Cynthia Slamka, Vice-President Georgiann Kish and Secretary-Treasurer Janice Jackovich collect vests and cheer cards after a practice session. The Sophomore Pep Club joins the Booster Club in cheering at the Homecoming pep rally.

Cheerleaders and Varsity Club

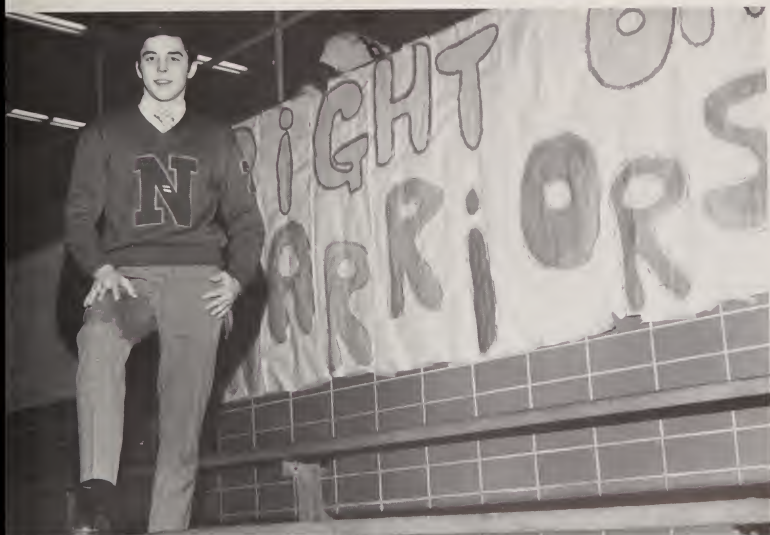

An athlete who earns a letter in any one of Noll's eight varsity sports earns the right of membership in the Bishop Noll Varsity Club. The club was formed to give recognition to all boys who do exceptionally well in any sport. The most important responsibility of "the boys in blue" is to promote all athletic activities. Under the direction of Mr. Mike Merrill the members of the Varsity Club act as monitors during lunch hours and ushers at pep rallies. The N-men help solicit student funds for various causes and this year raised their own funds through the sale of basketball booster pens. The club also helped distribute Wheelchair Basketball tickets and booster badges. The organization is looked upon as a source and example of leadership and spirit by the entire student body.

Judy Luberdia lends encouraging support to the basketball team; Peggy Quinn expresses happiness following a Noll victory. Varsity Club President Tom Skiba.

Noll cheerleaders lead the student body in the Warrior fight song; Alexis Menke lends her voice and spirit to the BNI cause; Vice-president Tom Ramker and Treasurer Tony Iarocci confer on Varsity Club business.

Cheerleaders and Varsity Club

During the 1970-71 year, the BNI cheerleaders once again caught the Noll spirit at various athletic events. Led by Captain Denise Ondrejka, the varsity cheerleaders performed at football and basketball games. Summer workouts, held three times a week, were continued during the school year. The varsity cheerleaders, Peggy Quinn, Alexis Menke, Judy Luberd, Diane Skurka, and Linda Hybiak, helped to instill enthusiasm during the pep rallies. The cheerleaders revised old cheers and also worked on new cheers such as "Get Together" and "Do it, Do it, Alright." Supporting the sub-varsity team were Sophomores Roberta Sroka, Robbin Barrera, and Maureen Mulholland. Freshmen cheerleaders Patti Sember, Therese LaMere, and Alanna Purcell, as well as B-team and varsity cheerleaders, were sponsored by Miss Carole Hepner.

Record holder Jerry Skurka prepares for his next vault; Mark Clawson gains speed down the stretch.

Track

The 1970 Warrior Track team finished an admirable season with a 9 win 5 loss record. Strong legs and mighty muscles carried the team to victory in both indoor and outdoor city meets. In addition they won the Clark relays and placed second in the formidable Andean meet. The trackmen finished a close third in Sectionals missing the title by only 3 points. Noll qualified two trackmen for state competition: Jerry Skurka, for his record breaking ability in the pole vault; Chuck Smoljan for his speed in the hurdles. In all, 5 new records were set during the 1970 season. Coach Bill Archer considered this the best team since 1964 and looks forward to the 1971 season. Many promising sophomore and junior trackmen will return and many new records will be set.

Golf

Woods and irons kept swinging as the 1970 Warrior Golf Team drove its way through a rewarding season with a 11-5 record. Most valuable player Joe O'Connor, followed by Terry Zgorka, John Morton, Bill Kollada and John Hurley stroked through the season with a mighty objective in mind—to win—and they did. Coached by Mr. Jim Tobolski, the linksmen placed second in Sectionals after a breathtaking "Sudden Death Playoff," between Hammond Morton and Noll. At the start of the playoff it became evident that the Warriors meant business when they immediately eliminated the Governors and claimed the second place award.

The two returning lettermen, Regis Blando and John Morton, hope to lead the '71 team to another winning example of BNI sportsmanship and spirit.

John Hurley exhibits his follow through; Bill Kollada checks the fairway before his next drive; Terry Zgorka straightens his stance as he prepares to tee off.

Baseball

The sure-hitting 1970 Baseball team wound up a successful season with a record of 18 wins, 6 losses and 1 tie game. At the beginning of the season, the team swept through a powerful 10 game winning streak and added an exciting close to the season by grabbing the Hammond Sectional Baseball Championship. On the average, our Warrior team outscored all the opponents, especially with the help of leading hitter, senior Tom Kovach and top pitcher, Jack Sonnenberg. Seniors Joe Fabian, Rich Halton, Ed Przybyl, Mike Sember, and Phil Trembczynski contributed to the point totals with home-runs and stolen bases. The Warriors salute Coach Bob Bradtke as he leaves the baseball field for the last time. Newly appointed Head Coach Jim Anderson hopes to repeat the team's winning way and establish a new "era" in BNI baseball.

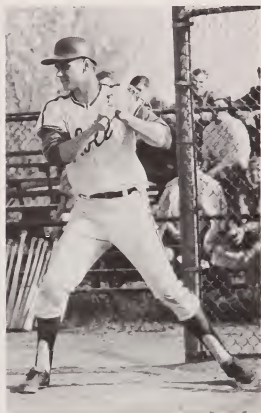

Senior Rich Halton takes a swing; Tom Kovach throws his best pitch while a Warrior slides safely into third. Coach Jim Anderson gives "that look" to Joe Laciak after correcting a base-running mistake.

Cross Country

Twenty-eight members of the Cross Country team, the largest in the history of Noll, ended a respectable season with a 5 win, 5 loss record. Co-winners of the "Most Valuable Runner" award, Bruce Bittner and Tony Klusas, led the team over hill and dale while "Most Improved Runner" Mark Clawson added speed and agility. Co-captains Pete Doherty and Terry Bonneau helped push our team to their best finish in the "Patriotic" meet held in Indianapolis and finally to a 5th place finish in Sectionals; speedster Tony Klusas's 13th place finish in Sectionals is one of the best performances turned in by a Noll runner.

In Coach Archer's words, "This season was disappointing yet interesting. Our record was not the best but each boy improved considerably in overall performance."

Terry Bonneau moves ahead of the pack early in the race; Mark Clawson offers Bruce Bittner a piece of "instant energy" in a slice of orange. A look from behind as the two mile begins.

Frank Podkul gets ready to throw a fake at a Lowell defender; Coach Mike Merrill diagrams a new play during halftime. Mark Grafton attempts a field goal from short range.

Football

The 1970 Warriors experienced every variety of game strategy while compiling a 6-3-1 record. After winning their first two home games, the Warriors dropped a heartbreaker to Hammond High 16-12. Not to be denied a winning season, Noll's gridmen went on to take four more victories while losing two and tying Morton in what was a truly classic defensive battle. This year's offense, under the steady hand of junior quarterback Eric Wilk and the running power of seniors Andre Hornsby and Joe Potraza, scored consistently. The defense, led by "best lineman" John Clarke, many times proved too tough to move against. Though next year's team will be small, Coach Merrill, with the help of Assistant Coaches Anderson and McDonough, hope that through training programs during the year they can build up their young squad.

Andre Hornsby evades tacklers and looks for daylight up ahead; Assistant Coach Mike McDonough explains a defensive formation to the linemen; Eric Wilk barks the signals to center Sam Dragovich.

A running play by Andre Hornsby fails as tacklers move in; the referee signals a Noll first down.

Joe Potraza tucks the ball in and heads downfield; a dejected Dave Bryant sits alone on the bench. Daily practices include calisthenics, blocking and tackling drills and team scrimmages.

Swimming

With a relatively young team the 1970-71 Warrior swimmers compiled a noteworthy 9-4 record. Summer practice sessions, followed by strenuous morning and afternoon workouts during the school year, proved valuable in conditioning and strengthening team members.

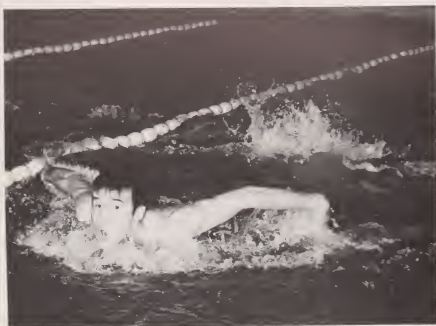

Sectionals, the most important test of the swim season, brought two new tournament records and qualified 10 Noll tankmen for state competition. Outstanding swimmers at the state finals were: Mike Reilly, third in the 400 meters freestyle; Greg Artim, fourth in the 200 meters freestyle; Doug Kamradt, fifth in the 100 meters backstroke, and the 400 meters relay team of Jim Etter, Reilly, Artim and Terry Austgen, which placed sixth.

Coach Herb Marquedant felt, "the times and improvement of the individual members indicated a great deal of talent and hard work. Next year's team will rely on a nucleus of twelve returning lettermen and plenty of experience."

Senior diver Bill Campbell exhibits his diving ability; Tony Svitko swims the butterfly stroke which won him a first-place finish in Sectionals.

Wrestling

As Wrestling Coach Jim Tobolski stated, "this year's successful season was a great surprise. I never expected this young team to do so well, especially in Sectionals." Finishing with a 10-3 dual meet record, Noll's grapplers combined aggressiveness with good team spirit and knowledge of the fundamental holds.

Most Valuable Wrestler Chuck Gora led the team with an undefeated (16-0-1) record through Sectionals. Other standouts included Most Improved Wrestler Dan Richwalski with the most takedowns and John Clarke leading in pins. Both Gora and Junior Lupe Solis won their division at the Calumet Sectionals.

Complementing the proficiency of Noll's wrestlers the past few years has been the increased student interest and attendance at many meets. With nine lettermen returning to next season's squad, Noll can look forward to a continuation of the recent winning tradition.

John Clarke struggles to pull his opponent to the mat; in the same meet, Dan Richwalski tries for a pin by flipping his opponent. An Andean wrestler strains to get away from the tenacious grip of Captain Chuck Gora; Noll's Lupe Solis executes an over-the-shoulder flip as the referee watches closely.

Heavyweight Sam Dragovich prepares to move in on his Highland rival; Pat Halton strives to improve his position.

John Domazet and Bob Purcell look on as Frank Podkul and a Tech player vie for control of the ball. Joe Laciak searches for an open teammate; Eric Wilk shoots for two against Whiting.

Tony Iarocci drives in for a hook shot; Junior Bob Purcell charges past a Whiting guard. Dribbling downcourt, John Domazet steers clear of a Tech opponent.

The Hornet center outjumps Jim Twarek to begin the Lew Wallace game; Jim Boyle reaches high to out-rebound a Tech defender. Randy McCambridge looks for an open shot. Mark Lissy waits downcourt while Frank Podkul gets set for a free throw.

Basketball

Trying a variety of line-ups to take advantage of the best possible combination, Coach Bob Bradtke used the 1970-71 basketball season to rebuild and stress team co-operation.

The year (9-11) was marked by several exciting and also several disappointing games. The squad's best performance was a thrilling home win over highly-touted Valparaiso after a triple overtime. Also memorable were wins over Lew Wallace and Horace Mann, and a stubbornly fought battle with top-ranked E. C. Washington.

Most Valuable Player John Domazet led the team in both rebounding and scoring, reaching the Top Ten of area scorers.

Coach Bradtke rotated the team roster, bringing up players from the talented B-Team to gain game experience. He stressed "the high degree of sportsmanship and determination that characterized the 1970-71 team," and feels "next year's squad will have the height and speed to challenge the best of the tough Calumet Region."

Tim Kimmel takes a jump shot early in the Clark game: Coach Bob Bradtke reviews his game plan during a timeout. The 1970-71 BNI Basketball Team. Mrs. Delgado

General Business students receive skills needed to obtain successful positions in the business world. Karen Rzepka finds time to complete her business homework and reading assignment.

Mrs. Pihulic

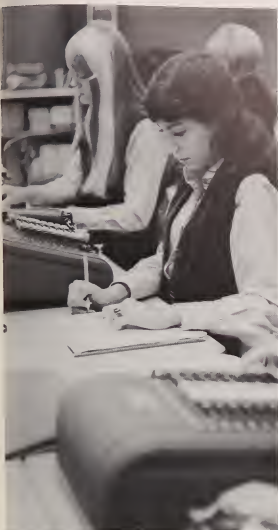

Mr. Zawada

Patti Micheli scans her typing book for instructions on a timed drill. Typists work on improving their speed and learn the procedures for all types of manuscripts and letters.

Andrea Pasztor rechecks a column of figures before tabulating them on the adding machine.

Mr. Anderson

Business Education

Faculty

MRS. BEATRICE M. PIHULIC, Business Education Department, B.S., Indiana University, Co-Chairman of Business Education Department, Co-Moderator of N.B.H.S. MR. RAYMOND ZAWADA, Mathematics and Business Education Departments, B.S., Indiana University, Freshman Basketball Coach. MR. JAMES L. ANDERSON, Physical Education and Business Education Departments, M.S., Eastern Michigan University, Head Baseball Coach and Assistant Varsity Football Coach. MRS. GAYE ANDERSEN, Business Education Department, B.S., Indiana University, Moderator of Pom-Pon Girls.

Mrs. Andersen

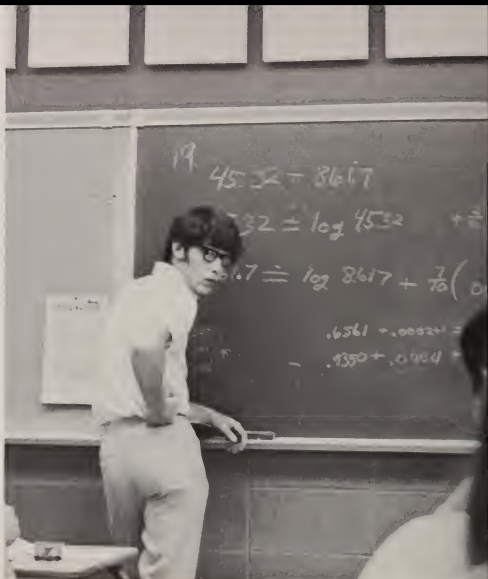

Rosie Mora calculates a series of prices. Students not only learn how to use various business machines but also accomplish the principles of geographic, alphabetic, and subject filing.

Theorems, formulas and equations can be confusing and tiring to the most capable math student. Mark Schwoegler seeks some help on logarithms.

Sister Imelda

Mr. Bobalik

Miss Hepner

Mathematics

Faculty

SISTER MARIE IMELDA, C.S.C., Chairman of Mathematics Department, M.S., University of Notre Dame, Moderator of N.H.S., Sponsor of Junior-Senior Math Club. MR. JOHN BOBALIK, Social Studies and Mathematics Departments, B.A., Lewis College, Assistant Track Coach and Assistant Freshman Basketball Coach.

MISS CAROLE A. HEPNER, Mathematics Department, M.A., Purdue University, Sponsor of Cheerleaders.

MR. RICHARD NOWAK, Mathematics Department, B.A., St. Joseph's College (East Chicago). MR. CESAR G. QUEYQUEP, Mathematics Department, B.S., Feati University (Manila).

Mr. Queyquep

Victor Fernandez intently studies the solution to a geometry problem illustrated on a screen by use of an over-head projector

Mathematics

Faculty

MR. JAMES T. WELBORNE, Mathematics Department, B.A., St. Joseph's College (East Chicago), Systems Analyst. MRS. SANDRA ZAK, Mathematics Department, B. S., Illinois Institute of Technology. MR. JOYCE, Mathematics Department, B.S., Pennsylvania State Teacher's College, Boys Attendance Officer.

Mrs. Zak

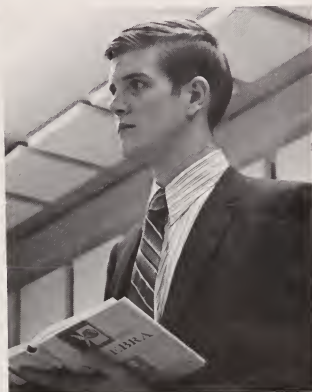

Mr. Welborne

Computer courses give students the chance to develop skills important in the modern technological world. John Burczak corrects his program before running it through the computer.

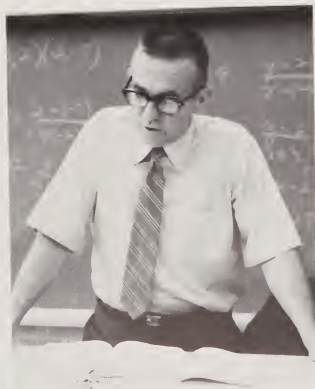

Students interested in the field of mechanical drawing and architecture learn about these fields through work in the newly adopted drafting course. John Morton carefully corrects a small but outstanding error.

Mr. Kalich

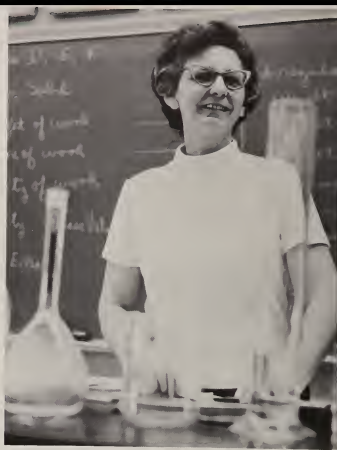

Sister Rose Veronica

Mr. Joyce

Mr. Pikul

Mrs. Michielsen

After extensive experimentation with acidity factors, Carl Mack looks for help in completing a biology lab report; Frank Kish finds that chemistry experiments are profitable as well as enjoyable. All science classes include lectures, lab experiments, discussions, movies and demonstrations.

Lab partners Dana Vangeloff and Judy Scheidler calculate the answer to a difficult chemistry problem after completing a temperature experiment. Students must apply their knowledge of mathematics and logic to science when answering post-lab questions.

Miss Domingo

Mrs. Murnighan

ENTHUSIASM—That certain something that makes us great—that pulls us out of the mediocre and commonplace—that builds into us Power. It glows and shines—it lights up our faces—ENTHUSIASM, the keynote that makes us sing and makes others sing with us.

ENTHUSIASM—The maker of friends—the maker of smiles—the producer and result of confidence. It cries to the world, "We've got what it takes." It tells all others that our job is a swell job—the goods we have are the best.

ENTHUSIASM—The inspiration that makes us "Wake Up and Live." It changes a pessimist to an optimist—a loafer to a go-getter.

Upon the plains of hesitation, bleached the bones of countless millions who, on the threshold of victory, sat down to wait, and waiting they died.

Well, this is it—the 1971 Marquette—a product of ENTHUSIASM. A yearbook can be a lot of things: a catalogue of the year's events, a reference to school friends, a showcase of the school, a work of art. Many of you, I'm sure, aren't completely satisfied with this book. You probably have individual ideas and suggestions. But it is too late for this year, we can only look back to it. Those of us on the staff had our own ideas. We all worked as hard as we felt necessary to create the best book we could. It was as hard and took as much effort on our part as that of many others who devoted their time to other school activities. But the one unique thing about our work was the fact that our book is all the other activities and events of Noll. It is meant for all students to see themselves and their friends in.

It took a lot of ENTHUSIASM to complete this book, just as it took ENTHUSIASM to get through each day of this year. It is Noll's inspiration and spirit that kept this book going and made all the effort worth it. What does "Noll spirit" mean? For the underclassmen, spirit is always a hope for tomorrow and next year, a whole calendar of events and activities, a chance to express their pride and feelings through BNI. To them I wish the best of luck and all the ENTHUSIASM to carry on. For the '71 graduates, spirit is something that brings us back to visit Noll as alumni, and something we can express in whatever we do. To us, I hope this yearbook stands as a reminder of our ENTHUSIASM—past, present and future. Memories are made of this.

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1996). The prevalence of schizophrenia in the United Kingdom is estimated to be 1.2% (Meltzer 1996). The prevalence of schizophrenia in the United States is estimated to be 1.1% (Meltzer 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with schizophrenia. The World Health Organization (WHO) has developed a set of guidelines for the management of schizophrenia (WHO 1993). The guidelines recommend that people with schizophrenia should be treated with a combination of medication and psychosocial interventions. The guidelines also recommend that people with schizophrenia should be treated in a community setting, rather than in a hospital. The guidelines also recommend that people with schizophrenia should be treated by a multidisciplinary team, including doctors, nurses, social workers, and psychologists.
